THE Chinese of Santa Barbara have raised the question how it is "that the American people can smell the sten h of Chinese and not their owu?" That seems to be easily compreheud ed; and we would suggest that one ramon is that a combination of hogenes, dead maskrate, ekunks, and the "drunk cell" of a city prison on Manday morning, could not altogeth or produce an aroma half so obnoxious as the foul odor arising from one of these suffocuting dens wherein Chinam or congregate to fill their bodies with the disgusting fumes of opinm. and then lie down in coils. like so many snakes, to sweat and rot. This is only one of the many answers that count be ffered to the above query.
